High Functioning Autism and Aspergers Advocacy

Advocacy

Advocacy is taking action to help people say what they want, secure their rights, represent their interest and obtain services they need.

Advocates are instructed or directed by the person at all times. Advocates don't do things or talk to people without their partners consent and they don't withhold information that other have shared.

Please give details of advocacy need:

Examples of Advocacy outcomes
Access and or understand information,
Understand/exercise a right
Consider options/made a decision
Have a voice in a statutory or general life issue, access services.
Challenge a decision or make a complaint.
